

USD Baseball Hitting Camps Fall 2007/Winter 2008

The University of San Diego baseball staff is pleased to offer its hitting camps for all skill levels and ages. Player's ages 10 through seniors in high school will be able to hone their skills with USD baseball coaches and players.

Learn the Torero approach to hitting at USD Baseball Hitting Camps. USD hitting Coach Jay Johnson and other Torero coaches and players will teach the fundamentals of hitting to all who attend. The staff will teach the campers proper swing mechanics through drill progressions and deliver the proper mental approach to hitting to maximize success at the plate.

*Please call for any questions, and check for space availability for your camp! There are only 10 spots available per session.

COACHING STAFF

Jay Johnson

Mark Viramontes

Jay Johnson- Jay is currently beginning his third year as the Toreros associate recruiting coordinator and hitting coach. In the 2006 and 2007 seasons the USD offense has led the West Coast Conference in hitting both overall and in conference play. The Toreros offense has performed at it's best against the top competition in the country. In 2006 they defeated three pitchers taken in the 1st round of the Major League Baseball Draft. In 2007 the Toreros defeated 10 pitchers named to the Roger Clemens Award (Nations Most Outstanding Pitcher) Watch List, en route to Winning the West Coast Conference Championship and achieving the schools highest ever national ranking ascending to #4 in the country, and were the #8 National seed in the NCAA Tournament. Head coach at nearby Point Loma Nazarene University in 2005, Johnson led the NAIA Sea Lions to a national ranking as high as No. 6 and a Golden State Athletic Conference-Southern Division Championship. In 2004 Johnson helped lead the Sea Lions to a 3rd Place finish in the NAIA College World Series while breaking the Golden State Athletic Conference record for wins in a single season with 47.

Mark Viramontes- Mark serves as the Toreros volunteer assistant coach working with the Torero catchers and assisting with the hitters. Viramontes served the past 2 summers as the Head Coach of the DuPage Dragons in the Central Illinois Collegiate League and has seven years of collegiate coaching experience. In 2004 and 2005 Mark was with the Brewster Whitecaps of the Cape Cod League.
